1st February 2019

Dear Parents and Carers,

It's Red Nose Day on Friday 15th March 2019 raising money for Comic Relief. We want to celebrate with lots of fun. We are going to bring back an old favourite: 'Gunge the Grown up' and also this year we're going to have Smarten up Scruffy Skuphy! You may have noticed how Mr Skupham has really let himself go. So in a special assembly during the afternoon of Red Nose Day, we're going to give him a magic make over. We can't give you any other details other than to ask if there are any professional hairdressers or beauticians out there who want to help us with head shaving or leg waxing, please get in touch and leave your details with our office team!

This event comes just a week after World Book Day, so to avoid breaking the bank, we invite the children to come in their own clothes or (for a real laugh) someone else's clothes. If they are wearing a red nose (of any kind), they do not need to make a voluntary contribution. Also, once we put the buckets out for Gunge the Grown up, you'll probably want to put your pennies in there!

This year, we are planning to take orders on ParentPay for official Comic Relief red noses that we will then purchase for the children and will delivered by the School Council to your child on the week of Comic Relief. They are £1.25 and will be available to purchase on ParentPay from today. One nose per child in school. If you wish to purchase any other red noses, they are on sale in Sainsbury's.

Bring on the fun!

Yours faithfully,

Diane Beardsmore
