

Book of the Month

Our Book of the Month for October is The Wolves in the Walls by Neil Gaiman. The book was read and reviewed by Mrs Pattison.

About the book....

When Lucy hears noises from behind the wall she tries to warn her parents that there are wolves banging about. But her parents don't listen. When the wolves finally take over the house and Lucy and her family are evicted to live in the garden, her parents realise perhaps they should have listened. But Lucy is no shrinking violet and pretty soon she has the wolves out and the family back in the house. So what was that noise Lucy heard coming from behind the wall?

This is a brilliant, witty and inventive picture book with cutting-edge art, which is sure to be a hit with existing fans of Neil Gaiman as well as young readers.

Mrs Pattison says this book would be a great book for children in Year 4,5,6 to read and gave it the following star rating

There are copies of the Book of the Month on our Bookopoly display. Please feel free to borrow – read – review and return. Next month Mr Skupham will be reviewing a book that he has enjoyed reading. 😊
