

Book of the Month

Our Book of the Month for February is The Boy Who Made the World Disappear by Ben Miller. This book was read and reviewed by Mrs Nixon.
About the book...

'Stories are often about a good person who does a Bad Thing, and this is no exception...' Harrison tries his best to be good. He doesn't steal, he always shares with his sister and he never cheats at board games, but Harrison also has a BIG flaw ... He can't control his temper! So when he's given a black hole instead of a balloon at a party, Harrison jumps at the chance to get rid of everything that makes him cross. But when it's not just things he hates that are disappearing into the black hole but things he loves, too, Harrison starts to realise that sometimes you should be careful what you wish for... An out-of-this-world adventure about twists of fate, time travel and troublesome black holes, Ben Miller's stunning storytelling is brought to life with beautiful illustrations from emerging talent Daniela Jaglenka Terrazzini.

Mrs Nixon says this book would be a great book for children in Years 3 – 5 to read.

There are copies of the Book of the Month on our Bookopoly display. Please feel free to borrow – read – review and return. Next month Miss Archer will be reviewing a book that she has enjoyed reading. 😊
