

Book of the Month

Lucy says this book would be a great book for children in all years to read or have read to them.

Our Book of the Month for May is The Railway Children by E Nesbit. This story was originally published in 1905 and was later adapted for the screen. This book was read and reviewed by Lucy, a student in year 5A.

About the book....

'We have to leave our house in London,' Mother said to the children. 'We're going to live in the country, in a little house near a railway line.' And so begins a new life for Roberta, Peter, and Phyllis. They become the railway children - they know all the trains, Perks the station porter is their best friend, and they have many adventures on the railway line. But why has their father had to go away? Where is he, and will he ever come back?

There are copies of the Book of the Month on our Bookopoly display. Please feel free to borrow – read – review and return. Next month Leon, a year 6 reading Ambassador will be reviewing a book that he has enjoyed reading. 😊
