

Year 4 - The Romans in Britain

Crucial Knowledge

Romans were a group of people who came from Rome in Italy.

In 43 AD, the Romans invaded Britain and defeated the Celts.

They invaded many places and became a big Empire.

Romans brought roads, towns and Christianity to Britain.

An empire is many countries together under one ruler called an Emperor.

The Romans left Britain in 410AD to go back to Rome.

Extended Knowledge

Two of the most famous Roman emperors during this time were Julius Caesar and Claudius.

Many tribes tried to rebel against the Romans most famously was a tribe ruled by Boudica.

The Romans defeated the Celts with an army of over 40,000 men and elephants.

The Romans built Hadrian's wall to keep the Scottish from attacking their lands.

Chronology

