

Year 5 - The Tudors

Crucial Knowledge

The Tudors ruled England from 1485-1603. Tudor was their family surname.

There were 5 Tudor Monarchs Henry VII, Henry VIII, Edward VI, Mary I and Elizabeth I.

Henry VIII had 6 wives. We remember them with the rhyme: divorced, beheaded & died, divorced, beheaded, survived.

In 1534, Henry VIII created the church of England which we still have today.

There were two religions in Tudor England. People were punished if they weren't the same religion as the monarch.

Elizabeth I's rule was seen as a 'Golden Age'. Both religions were allowed and explorers discovered new countries like America.

Extended Knowledge

Henry VII won a battle to become the King of England.

Henry VIII created the church of England as the Catholic church would not allow him to have a divorce.

Henry VIII had 3 children; Mary I, Elizabeth I and Edward VI.

Protestants and Catholics were different due to the ways in which they interpreted the bible.

Chronology

