Belonging to a Community

- ❖ A community is a group of people living or working together in the same area. People in communities might go to the same schools, shop in the same stores and do the same things. They also help each other and solve problems together.
- ❖ We have rules in society to keep us safe and ensure our rights.
- ❖ Rules can be for anyone.
- ❖ More important rules are called laws. If we break them, there may be more serious consequences, such as being made to pay a fine or being arrested.
- ❖ Children have rules to follow at home, at school and elsewhere.
- ❖ These rules teach children the difference between right and wrong and how their actions can affect other people.
- ❖ A right that all people are born with is called a human right. Many people now agree that there are many human rights. Some of the most basic rights are the right to live and the right to believe what one chooses. Many people think that a government should protect the human rights of all its people.
- ❖ With every right there is also a responsibility e.g. the right to an education and the responsibility to learn.

Health and well being

Physical Health and Mental Wellbeing Key Facts

- ❖ Mental wellbeing is an individual's level of psychological wellbeing which can affect a person's mood and their thoughts and can sometimes dictate their behaviour. Everybody has mental health, and it can be better, worse or fluctuate depending on the individual.
- ❖ Physical Health is defined as the condition of your body
- ❖ Physical health is critical for overall well-being, and can be affected by: Lifestyle: diet, level of physical activity, and behaviour (for instance, smoking)
- ❖ It is important to identify healthy and unhealthy choices (e.g. in relation to food, exercise, sleep)
- ❖ It is important to be aware of what can help people to make healthy choices and what might negatively influence them.
- ❖ A habit is a usual way of behaving, something that a person does often in a regular and repeated way.
- ❖ A habit can be maintained, changed or stopped.
- ❖ A healthy balanced diet should be eaten regularly to keep us both physically and mentally fit and strong.
- ❖ regular exercise such as walking or cycling has positive benefits for both our mental and physical health.
- ❖ Feelings can change overtime and become more or less powerful.

Growing and Changing

- ❖ We are all unique and this should be celebrated.
- ❖ Everybody has valuable contributions to make.
- ❖ Strengths and interests form part of a person's identity.
- ❖ It is important to voice our thoughts and feelings. This can help us manage our emotions and responses to situations.
- ❖ Self-confidence is how secure you feel in yourself and your abilities.

Keeping Safe Key Facts

- ❖ A hazard is a potential source of danger.
- ❖ It is important to follow safety rules from parents and other adults in order to keep safe.
- ❖ It is important to know how to predict, assess and manage risk in everyday situations e.g. crossing the road, running in the playground, in the kitchen.
- ❖ It is important to know where to get help and who to ask for help.
- ❖ Sometimes, you might have to ask for help from an adult in a position of trust. For example, a shop worker or a security guard.
- ❖ In an emergency, you would need to get specialist help. For example, from a paramedic, a police officer or a firefighter.
- ❖ As we grow up and experience the world around us, we learn about hazards and how to keep ourselves and others safe.
- ❖ Even experiences that put us in danger or situations where we were harmed teach us something about how to stay safe in the future.
